Today as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ let us pray for those who are hungry, malnourished and starving.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help those who are hungry.

Stewardship

"Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."
1 Corinthians 10:17

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops teaches us (in their pastoral letter on stewardship) that the Eucharistic celebration should lead to works of charity and mutual help. The heart of stewardship is this "Eucharistic stewardship."

Prayer List: Please keep in your prayers parishioners who are sick

While you were away, we have added an on-line giving option to our website for your convenience. You can access it by searching our website www.stignatiusmartyrlou.org or directly at abundant.co/stignatiusmartyr/give.

On these sites, you can make gifts for your Sunday offering, St. Vincent DePaul donation, or Soar to New Heights pledge. You can choose a one-time gift or set up an automatic recurring gift for weekly, monthly etc., and you can charge it to your bank account or to a debit/credit card account.

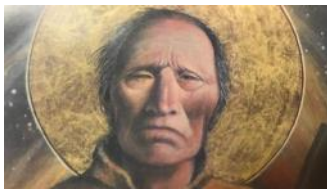

Hopefully, you will find these sites easy to use but feel free to call the bookkeeper, Steve Walker if you have any issues or questions. (The sites do not work well when using older versions of internet explorer as your browser, so you may need to search in Chrome, Microsoft Edge, Safari, or FireFox).

Thank you for your support!

Congratulations to Fr. David on being elected as an alternate delegate on the Priest's Council!

We need additional volunteers to be Usher/Greeter. If you are a server or eucharistic minister, please consider being an usher/greeter or sacristan during the time that your ministry is suspended. If you do not already serve a role in the parish and would like to begin, please volunteer. Contact Paula Silliman in the parish office for more info or to volunteer.

Walking the Good Red Road:
Nicholas Black Elk's Journey to Sainthood

The documentary Walking the Good Red Road: Nicholas Black Elk's Journey to Sainthood will air in Louisville on Sunday, June 14 at 5:00 p.m. on WHAS 11 TV, the local ABC affiliate. This program came about through the collaboration of the Diocese of Rapid City, promoters of Black Elk's cause for sainthood, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Catholic Communication Campaign, and a well-respected production company (NewGroup Media) that has produced many programs for USCCB over the years. This retelling of Black Elk's life and legacy relies heavily on archival photographs and publications, expert interviews, and historical reenactments on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota.

According to records from the Diocese of Rapid City, Black Elk was born around 1865. He came from a family of medicine men and he carried on their work. He was at the Battle of Little Big Horn close to the Montana-Wyoming border in 1876. Around 1877, he joined Buffalo Bill's Wild West show and toured in Europe. He returned to the United States in 1889.

Through his interaction with Jesuit priests, he converted to the Catholic faith and was baptized on December 6, 1904, the feast of St. Nicholas. One biographer said he took the name Nicholas because he was inspired by the saint's generosity.
